The grading of the trip (Gentle Walking) was accurate for the plans. but several participants were obviously very fit and all the time were pushing to walk quickly. Two of us were slower and the others didn't always wait for us to catch up, and if they did, started immediately on our arrival. I talked to the guide, who was sympathetic, but obviously had a problem as he couldn't tell them what to do. Subsequently, he kept saying that there was plenty of time, and to me he encouraged me to walk at my own pace and take breaks for rest, photos, etc as I wanted, and made sure that I knew where I was going.

Your holiday experience

Please tell us what you enjoyed about travelling with Mountain Kingdoms:

Excellent organisation, excellent guide and driver. These people were always prepared to do what was necessary, even when it didn't seem to be their job (eg, helping to clean room, serving food at lunch/dinner). Good itinerary, excellent hotel in Kathmandu.
